Dear Kirk,

The OSD/JS FOIA contact gave me your name and number to specifically address my unanswered FOIA request which I originally sent in March of this year.

The attached FOIA request from April 28th has gone unanswered as well. I believe the request window for a reply is 10 days. The OSD/JS is aware my request has gone unanswered as of yet.

I have involved my Congressman in this matter but would prefer to just receive a suitable and professional answer from DECA, as there is channel and process already set up for requesting and receiving information via FOIA.

If you are not the contact to address my FOIA request, please let me know immediately who I should contact, so I may go through proper channels.

Very respectfully,

Judith Mansidor

Subject: DeCA FOIA 25-125 - Response

Good morning,
DeCA received your FOIA request for the store names and addresses that sell Plan B.
Your request will be tracked as DeCA FOIA 25-125.

Sometime last year all of the DeCA mailboxes, like FOIA@deca.mil, were deactivated and replaced with deca.gregg.adams.hq.mbx.xxxxxx@mail.mil.
Therefore, the FOIA mailbox is deca.gregg.adams.hq.mbx.foia@mail.mil.
Furthermore, the DeCA website was also changed to <https://corp.commissaries.com>.
As soon as I could get DeCA IT to update FOIA page they changed the email address sometime last year.

Based on your research that 236 Commissaries sell Plan B, that means that every store sells Plan B.
You can find the names and address of every store on <https://corp.commissaries.com>.
Go to the "Stores" tab at the top of the page and every store is listed alphabetically.
Click on any store and the store page will display the address.

FYSA, the response window for FOIA requests is 20 business days.

Kind regards,
Kirk
